

AMERICAN ACADEMY OF PEDIATRICS (AAP) FULL DISCLOSURE STATEMENT FORM

As a provider accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the AAP is required to identify and resolve all potential conflicts of interest with any individual in a position to influence and/or control the content of CME activities. A conflict of interest will be considered to exist if the individual has received financial benefits in any amount from a commercial interest (any entity producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing health care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients) within the past 12 months and that individual is in a position to affect the content of CME regarding the products or services of the commercial interest. All individuals in a position to influence and/or control the content of AAP directly and jointly sponsored CME activities are required to disclose to the AAP and subsequently to learners that the individual either has no relevant financial relationships or any financial relationships with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial product(s) and/or provider(s) of commercial services discussed in CME activities. All disclosure information provided to the AAP will be reviewed to ensure that no conflicts of interest exist prior to the confirmation of the individual for the educational assignment. Additional information may be requested. It is the responsibility of the individual to notify the AAP of any changes in the disclosure information provided since the submission of this AAP Full Disclosure Statement Form.
