Helping Children and Families Amidst COVID-19

This educational series will comprise of multiple one-hour webinar sessions to educate and equip front line providers and clinical staff in Pediatrics, Family Medicine, and OB-GYN to the challenges children and families are facing. Each session, starting in June, will be led by an expert panelist who will have a didactic presentation followed by open Q&A with collaborative learning from all participants.

Series Timeline:

- NOW
  - Register for series

- June
  - 1st Webinar
    Wednesday, June 10th, 2020, 12:15-1:15pm
  - 2nd Webinar
    Wednesday, June 24th, 2020, 12:15-1:15pm

- July
  - 3rd Webinar
    Wednesday, July 8th, 2020, 12:15-1:15pm
  - 4th Webinar
    Wednesday, July 15th, 2020, 12:15-1:15pm
  - 5th Webinar
    Wednesday, July 29th, 2020, 12:15-1:15pm

- August
  - 6th Webinar
    Wednesday, August 12th, 2020, 12:15-1:15pm
  - 7th Webinar
    Wednesday, August 26th, 2020, 12:15-1:15pm

Series Topics:

- June 10: “Overview of stressors affecting children and families” Clinical Psychologist Amy Walters, PhD
- June 24: “Post pandemic traumatic stress and adverse childhood experiences” Child Psychiatry Sam Pullen MD
- July 8: “Domestic Violence” Family Medicine and FACES Family Justice Center provider Ashley King, MD
- July 15: “Depression and Suicidality” Clinical Psychologist Gretchen Gudmundsen, Ph.D.
- July 29: “Non-pharmacological interventions for anxiety, stress management” Integrative Medicine, Brittany Blockman, MD
- August 12: “Child Abuse” Medical Director of Children at Risk Evaluation Services, Matt Cox, MD
- August 26: “Empowering families by teaching resiliency in your everyday practice and interactions” Pediatrician and ACE’s champion, Tom Patterson, MD

To Register and obtain more Information:

- Contact:
  Brad McKinney mckinneb@slhs.org
  Jackie R. Barker rivasbaj@slhs.org

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Utah Medical Association (UMA) through the joint Providership of the Ada Canyon Medical Education Consortium and St. Luke’s